3.2.1 Institution has created an ecosystem for innovation and has initiatives for creation and transfer of knowledge.

Through a number of initiatives at the college and management levels that provide financial, technological, and infrastructural support, as well as faculty-level initiatives that provide platforms for knowledge creation and transfer through events, programmes, seminars, workshops, skill-based courses, and research publications, IME College offers an enriching ecosystem for encouraging research and innovative approaches among students and staff.

The institute has created an environment that is supportive of research and innovation through the hiring and training of highly qualified staff, the execution of creative projects for the creation and distribution of information, and the construction of state-of-the-art infrastructure. Below is the information:

- Centre of Excellence: By making use of the available resources, staff and students are encouraged to engage in research and developmental activities. Our centre of excellence has aided our management and IT students in acquiring the skills they need and in creating creative projects across a range of fields.
- Human Resource: The institute recruits dynamic & highly qualified faculty to mentor and channelize the young minds. Faculty are encouraged to participate in various skill enhancement programs under the govt. schemes.
- The Central Library provides facilities for creation of knowledge and research support through reference books, research journals, reading room.
- A well-equipped IT lab at IME College ensures that students have access to the latest hardware, software, and technologies used in the industry. This helps them stay updated with current trends and prepares them for real-world scenarios. In addition to IT-focused activities, the lab also supports multimedia and content creation for management students. This includes creating presentations, reports, and other materials using various software tools.
